Hyderabad in his letter 3rd read above, while explaining the circumstances of the case, finally stated that the District Vocational Education Officer, Ranga Reddy District has been appointed as an Enquiry Officer and she has submitted her report held that the charge has not proved. But, charge was framed that, Smt. P.Selma Rajakumari has submitted false service certificate from GJC(W),Guntur at the time of regularization. The Enquiry Officer has also presumed that for the period from 27.6.1989 to 2.9.1989 remuneration was paid (Rs.2080) on 25.7.1990 as she has not worked before 8.10.1990 in the College. After examination of the facts of the case, Smt. P.Selma Rajakumari, Junior Lecturer in CGDM, Government Junior College (G), Hussainialam, Hyderabad now working at Govt. Vocational Junior College, Nampally, Hyderabad is hereby allowed to work as PTJL in CGDM on MTS duly canceling the regularization of her services as no record is available for the remuneration drawn during 1989-1990 and the eligibility criteria of putting 600 working days in 5 academic years as on 25.11.1993 is not fulfilled with documentary evidence as required vide reference 1st read above.

3. In her Appeal Petition 2nd read above, Smt. P.Selma Rajakumari, JL in CGDM has requested that her defense statement was not considered, even though she submitted Enquiry Officers Report along with supporting documentary evidences for her service done during 1989-90 and 1990-91 which were earlier considered by the then Enquiry Officer as per the Enquiry Report and dropped the charges against her. She has also submitted the documentary evidence pertains to the period 27.6.89 to 2.9.89 viz., Resolution of Selection Committee, Service Certificate, Work done statement and the attested copies of Acquaintances of 1989-90 & 90-91. Hence, she has requested to drop the final orders issued by the D.I.E., vide Procs. dt.1.2.2010 against her, for which act of kindness.

4. After careful examination of the matter, the Government is hereby observed that the Enquiry Officer in her report stated that the Charged Officer, joined as PTJL on 27.6.1989 and worked up to 2.9.1989 for 55 days in the academic year 1989-90 and subsequently worked continuously for 4 academic years from 8.10.1990 onwards; she has completed 660 days and also received

The Charged Officer took admission for M.Ed course on 28.8.1989, relinquished PTJL on 2.9.1989 and re-joined on 8.10.1990. She completed M.Ed., course in 13 months in the period between 2.9.1989 to 8.10.1990. The charged Officer did not teach classes while doing M.Ed. Thus, the presumption of D.I.E., in his report dt.6.4.2010, is not supported by the facts. The findings of the Enquiry Officer are accepted, the appeal of the Charged Officer is allowed. Accordingly, the proceedings of the Director of Intermediate Education, dt.01.02.2010 is set-a-side by the Government and the Charged Officer is exonerated from the charge, restoring status-quo ante to the Proceedings of the D.I.E., dt.1.2.2010; so that her services as Junior Lecturer in CGDM are continued without break and posting her as Junior Lecturer in CGDM, Government Vocational Junior College, Bazarghat, Nampally, Hyderabad.
